

Air Vice-Marshal 'Mac' Weller, AM

Began as a technical apprentice, then did engineering at RMIT, graduating in 1964. He did three tours on Iroquois helicopters, including SENGO of 9 Squadron in Vung Tau, Vietnam in 1971, and worked on projects involving FA-18, P3, C-130, and F-111. He was the last Logistics Commander and retired as Support Commander in 1998. Until recently, as a reservist, he was the technical member of the ADF Airworthiness Board.